

Carmen Santos-Logan

Deputy Director, Cybersecurity Architecture and Capability Oversight, Department of Defense

- Been in Government Service for over 30 years with the majority of time spent in the Department of Defense.
 - Places worked: The Joint Staff/J6, The Chief Information Office at the Defense Information Systems Agency, The Chief Information Office at the Defense Logistics Agency, and the Defense Communications Agency
- Current position is with the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Chief Information Officer, Directorate for Cybersecurity. Is the Deputy Director for Cybersecurity Architecture and Capability Oversight.
- Work portfolio consists of DoD Continuous Monitoring, Counter Insider Threat/User Activity Monitoring, Endpoint Security Management, and Secure Mobility.
- In coordination with the USCYBER COMMAND, functions as the chief strategist to deliver the Congressionally mandate Comply-To-Connect initiative. DISA leads the C2C Program Management office.
- In support of C2C, there are a number of test and evaluation initiatives on going in the Department, DoD CIO funded a proof of concept in 2018 – 2019, and the USNAVY and USMC have executed operational implementations to demonstrate the value of asset discovery and management, automated remediation, and pre and post connection management.