

Brig Gen Carl "Ferris" Buhler, USAF (ret)

Mr. Buhler currently serves as a consultant for a variety of aerospace and defense companies ranging from small businesses to Fortune 500 companies. His focuses include supply chain, logistics, maintenance, MROs, and innovation. He also serves as a board of director for a company, plus serves on four company advisory boards. He holds a Business Consultant Certificate.

Mr. Buhler has extensive logistics, aircraft maintenance and munitions experience. During his 28-plus year Air Force career, he served as the USAF "Thunderbirds" maintenance officer and deployed to Operations DESERT STORM (cease-fire phase), IRAQI FREEDOM, & ENDURING FREEDOM. Additionally, he served twice as a Major Command Logistics Director (PACAF and ACC) and commanded the Ogden Air Logistics Complex (Hill AFB), 78th Air Base Wing (Robins AFB), and the 379th Expeditionary Maintenance Group (Southwest Asia). He also served at the Pentagon in Legislative Liaison and as the AF Deputy Director of Logistics Resource Integration.