

Carlton Drew, (Acting) Deputy Program Manager for the FASC PMO. Mr. Drew brings over 30 years of federal government experience in wide variety of roles related to acquisition, operations, portfolio/program management and information management. He is a White House Leadership Development Fellow supporting Information and Communications Technology Supply Chain Risk Management enforcement, policy, governance, compliance, stakeholder engagement and budgetary activities.