

Christina Ayiotis, Co-Chair, Georgetown Cybersecurity Law Institute

Christina Ayiotis, Esq., CRM, an internationally-recognized leader in cyber, privacy, data protection, information governance and electronic discovery, serves as Co-Chair of the Georgetown Cybersecurity Law Institute and as a Member of both AFCEA International's Cyber Committee and The Cybersecurity Canon Committee. She taught Information Policy at The George Washington University (at the Masters level) and served as Deputy General Counsel—Information Governance, at CSC, a global technology services provider. She also created and led global programs at Booz Allen Hamilton, EYI, and Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu. She served on the Boards of ARCS MWC, Fairfax Law Foundation, ARMA NOVA, Hellenic American Women's Council and Women's Bar Association of DC. She earned a Zertifikat Deutsch als Fremdsprache from Goethe Institut and studied French at Alliance Française, Paris. A magna cum laude graduate of Virginia Commonwealth University (BS- Biology/ BA-Philosophy; Minors- Mathematics/French; University Honors), she earned a Juris Doctorate from Marshall-Wythe School of Law at the College of William & Mary. She is the extremely proud Mom of an 18-year-old (Viterbi Dean's List Senior) Trojan at University of Southern California.