

Christine Vatisdis has over 25 years of experience in the Public Sector Information Technology industry and has held positions of increasing responsibility and growth.

An 18 year veteran at CA Technologies, she is currently the Senior Director of Sales for the DoD/Intel business and leads the strategy, operations, sales and business development efforts.

As a successful Account Director regularly ranked in the top 15% world-wide, Vatisdis has been tasked throughout her career at CA with launching and improving new business areas. In 2008, she helped launch the State, Local and Education market which has grown into a strategic public sector market for the company.

For the past two years as the head of DoD/Intel, she has doubled the product, service and education revenue while reducing costs. She believes in a team-oriented approach to business and is poised for significant growth in the 2017 fiscal year.

She is passionate about giving back to the community and has held positions at with CHRIS kids and HRC.