David Hansen leads the NetDocuments Security Compliance department, which includes management of annual ISO 27000 series information security standards and Type 2 SOC 2 audits, development of policies, implementation of procedures, auditing operational and security compliance, and helping customers and prospects understand NetDocuments' security architecture. David has over 25 years of experience in finance, HR, marketing, IT operations, and federal legislation. His experience is supported by degrees in communications, accounting (David is a Certified Public Accountant), and journalism. David lives with his wife and three children outside of Park City. UT.