What kinds of payment do you accept?

We only accept credit card (AMEX, Visa, MC) via our online registration. If you are interested in paying by check, please reach out to Leah Spinelli at Lspinelli@govexec.com.

I'm a media representative – how do I receive a complimentary pass?

When registering for the event, please select “media” as your registration type and you will receive a complimentary pass. When you arrive onsite, we will review your press credentials at the media registration table to check you in.

I am registered, but can no longer attend. Can I cancel or transfer my registration?

As stated on our payment page of the registration form as well as the confirmation message you received, we do not refund any registrations for this event. You may substitute another individual in your place at no extra charge. If transferring, please forward this information to Leah Spinelli at Lspinelli@govexec.com.

What is the dress code for the event?

The dress code for the event is business casual. Military personnel who wish to wear their uniforms are encouraged to but it is not a requirement.

What if I can't get there when registration opens in the morning?

Registration will be open throughout the entire program. Please feel free to come check-in when it is most convenient for you.
