

Derek Dyer is the Chief Financial Officer and Co-Founder of C5MI. He is an accomplished leader of complex transformational initiatives bringing decades of experience driving global systems teams, creating strategies, and leading manufacturing business units and supply chain organizations.

During his tenures at two Fortune 100 companies, Derek created significant business value by transforming global SAP and complex supply chain organizations. He has substantial international experience and was viewed as a results-driven strategic leader that delivered excellent results while fostering high employee engagement. Derek has been very successful in driving business value and capturing opportunities by aggressively adopting innovative solutions and intelligently applying technology.