

Dr. Bill Brantley is a program manager in the Career Development Branch of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office's Enterprise Training Division. He creates custom training programs for the USPTO business units and is establishing a career and performance coaching program. Bill also is the President of the Club of Open Data Enthusiasts at USPTO which holds webinars and events on the impact of big data and automation at the USPTO. He has a Ph.D. in Public Policy and Management and is completing a Master's in Organizational Learning, Performance, and Change. Before working at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, Dr. Brantley worked in the Strategic Workforce Planning Department at the U.S. Office of Personnel Management, where he worked on issues involving artificial intelligence and big data as it affected the U.S. federal workforce.