

Dr. Mohamed Nooman Ahmed, Distinguished Engineer, Master Inventor, AI, Watson & Cognitive Solutions

Dr. Mohamed Nooman Ahmed is an IBM Distinguished Engineer, AI Chief Scientist, and Manager within IBM GBS Federal. He is leading a team of scientists and software engineers in projects related to Artificial Intelligence, Natural Language Processing, Multi-lingual Information Retrieval, Machine Learning, Image processing, and Computer Vision. Dr. Ahmed holds 20 U.S. patents, 25 filed patents, and has published over 50 peer-reviewed journal and conference papers. He graduated with highest honors from the University of Louisville with Ph.D. degree in Computer Science and Engineering. He obtained his B.S. and M.S. in Biomedical Engineering from Cairo University, Egypt, in 1989 and 1992, respectively.