

Dr. Wanda Ann Swanier
Director, Supply Chain Management Center, Marine Corps
Logistics Command

Dr. Wanda Ann Swanier is a native of Canton, Mississippi. She enlisted in the Navy October 1974 as a Seaman Apprentice. Dr. Swanier has over 30 years of active duty Navy Service and 11 years in the Federal Government Service.

She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from the University of La Verne. She also graduated from the Naval War College with a Master in National Security Studies and Walden University with a Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) Degree.

Her career include a variety of supply, training, and logistics assignments. Her operational tours include Disbursing and Sales Officer; USS JASON (AR 8), Readiness and Resource Officer USS MCKEE (AS 41), and Supply Officer USS MOBILE BAY (CG 53).

The pinnacle of her active duty career and her culminating assignment was her tour as Fleet Readiness Officer, Commander, United States Pacific Fleet, Pearl Harbor Hawaii. She provided continuous logistics support and supply chain oversight to 171 ships throughout the Pacific Fleet Area of Responsibility.

On June 1, 2010, Dr. Swanier retired from Active Duty and joined Marine Corps Logistics Command Team. Dr. Swanier began her career as a GS-12 and quickly moved through the GS grades to her current position, GS-15 Director, Supply Chain Management Center (SCMC). She resides in Leesburg Georgia, with her husband Victor.