

Eric Zgodzinski, Health Commissioner, Toledo-Lucas County Health Department, City of Toledo, Ohio

Eric has been employed in Public Health for over 26 years. His career started in Cuyahoga County Ohio as a sanitarian working for the Cuyahoga County Board of Health. He obtained his MPH from the Northwest Consortium of Public Health in 2001 and in that same year Eric took an Environmental Health Supervisor position at the Toledo-Lucas County Health Department (TLCHD). He then went on to be a supervisor of the Western Lucas County Clinic for TLCHD, was the Northwest Ohio Regional Public Health Coordinator, TLCHD Director of Environmental Health and since June of 2016 has been the Health Commissioner for TLCHD. Eric obtained his DrPH from the University of Illinois at Chicago in the spring of 2020. Eric also is a published author who has three editions of Essentials of Public health Management.