David Hinchman
Acting Director, Information Technology and Cybersecurity
U.S. Government Accountability Office

Dave Hinchman oversees the U.S. Government Accountability Office's government-wide reviews of the IT workforce and critical infrastructure protection, and also leads GAO's evaluations of the IRS's IT modernization efforts. He previously led GAO's body of work on federal data center consolidation and cloud computing. Prior to joining GAO in 2002, Dave worked for several private sector firms, including PricewaterhouseCoopers, and served as a Surface Warfare Officer in the United States Navy. Dave has a master's degree in business administration from the Eller School of Management at the University of Arizona, and a bachelor's degree in anthropology from Vassar College in New York.