

Douglas Averill
Global Government Business Line Leader
Pegasystems

Douglas Averill is the Global Business Line Leader for Pega's Government Business. Formerly with the State of Maine and with more than a decade of experience in the Public Sector globally, Doug leads efforts to describe the value and transformative power of Pega's applications and platform in creating operational efficiencies, being more responsive to legislative changes, and improving the constituent experience. His team coaches Public Sector stakeholders who are dedicated to truly transforming governments into a holistic, open platform to serve citizens. Doug holds a BS in Biology from Dickinson College in Carlisle, Pennsylvania and an MBA from Babson College in Wellesley, Massachusetts.
