

Corinne Dougherty Bio

Corinne Dougherty is a partner in KPMG's Washington, DC office. She has over 18 years of experience providing financial statement audit and related assurance services, as well as accounting and advisory services to her clients. Corinne is part of the leadership team for KPMG IMPACT. In this role, Corinne leads the development and delivery of Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) related training. Additionally, she advises clients in developing best practices for impact measurement and reporting, and leads teams engaged to provide ESG assurance services. Corinne is a frequent speaker on ESG topics and was interviewed on television by Government Matters and has been featured in publications including Federal News Network, the Journal of Accountancy, Bloomberg, and Insights Magazine.

Additionally, Corinne is a partner in KPMG's Federal practice in providing audit and advisory services to Federal Government clients. Corinne oversees audits of large, complex Federal government Departments and agencies.

Corinne served as an adjunct professor for four years. She taught two different graduate courses on government and not-for-profit accounting and auditing in the Masters of Accountancy program at The George Washington University.

Corinne has been recognized by winning the Washington, DC office's KPMG Chairman's Award for high performance. In addition, Corinne was selected by the Greater Washington Society of CPAs as a Woman to Watch and by the Accounting and Financial Woman's Alliance as an Emerging Leader.

Corinne has a Bachelor's degree in Accounting from the Robert H. Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland and is a Certified Public Account, Certified Government Financial Manager, Project Management Professional, and received an Executive Certificate in Advancing Sustainability from NYU Stern's Center for Sustainable Business.