

Greg Myers
Vice President, US Federal Government
Microsoft Corporation

Greg Myers is the Vice President at Microsoft Corporation responsible for the Federal Government business worldwide. Greg works closely with top government customers and defines the strategy and oversees the execution of sales, contracting, pre-sales technical support, product marketing, customer satisfaction, and performance of Microsoft's US Federal Government business worldwide.

Greg joined Microsoft in April 2009 as General Manager of the US Federal Civilian and Healthcare Sales and Operations. In that role, he was responsible for the overall sales vision and creating successful strategies for a critical set of Federal customers. Greg previously served as Senior Vice President of Worldwide and Government Sales at Approva Corporation, a dedicated Microsoft partner in the Washington D.C. area.

Greg has dedicated more than 20 years to working closely with the Federal Government at companies like Oracle, BearingPoint and NCR managing sales, channels and outsourcing services.

Greg graduated Summa Cum Laude from the University of Maryland. He currently lives in Maryland with his wife, Carol and their three children, Amanda, Michael and Brian.
