

Mr. Hugh H. Hardin

Mr. Hugh H. Hardin received his baccalaureate in Systems Engineering, and commission as an Armor officer, from the United States Military Academy in 1991. While on active duty he served as a tank platoon leader and company executive officer in 2-69 Armor, then battalion S-1/adjutant of 1-11 Infantry in Fort Benning, Georgia; battalion S-4/logistics officer during Operation Able Sentry VII, then tank company commander of Delta and later Charlie Companies of 1-63 Armor in Vilseck, Germany; and Chief of the Heavy Axis Experiments Division in the Combat Service Support Battle Lab in Fort Lee, Virginia. After leaving the Army, Mr. Hardin gained broad civilian experience in brand management at Procter & Gamble, sales management at Best Buy, and as a financial advisor at American Express Financial Advisors.

Mr. Hardin joined the Army's Civilian Corps as a supply specialist in US Army Garrison, Grafenwoehr in 2004. After serving in a variety of staff positions, he became the Deputy to the Garrison Commander of US Army Garrison Natick, Massachusetts, in December 2008; and later the Deputy to the Garrison Commander of US Army Garrison Presidio of Monterey, California, in April 2015. Mr. Hardin assumed his current duties as the Deputy to the Garrison Commander of US Army Garrison Fort Gordon in October 2019.

Mr. Hardin's significant military training includes the Armor Officer Basic Course, Infantry Officer Advanced Course, Combined Arms and Services Staff School, and Airborne Course; his civilian professional development includes the Leadership for a Democratic Society program at the Federal Executive Institute, the Senior Executive Institute program at the University of Virginia, the Senior Manager Course in National Security Leadership at George Washington University, and relevant courses from the Army Management Staff College and Defense Acquisition University. He has been awarded the Superior Civilian Service Medal, Meritorious Civilian Service Medal, Commander's Award for Civilian Service, Army Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Armed Forces Service Medal, United Nations Medal, and Army Superior Unit Award throughout his career.