

Jaimie Clark is the Lead Program Manager for the FASC PMO and Senior Advisor to the Federal Chief Information Security Officer. Mr. Clark is also an adjunct law professor at the George Washington University Law School, where he instructs on cybersecurity law and policy, as well as cybersecurity technology fundamentals for lawyers.

Mr. Clark brings over 20 years of national security experience, in both the public and private sector. He has worked for all three branches of government, and feels honored to have had the opportunity to serve our country at home and abroad, as a military veteran and federal civilian.