

Kevin Davis

Vice President, Public Sector

Kevin Davis has served as Splunk's Vice President, Public Sector since 2015. Mr. Davis joined Splunk in 2014 as the Area Vice President, Federal.

Prior to joining Splunk, Mr. Davis was at Oracle from 2005 to 2014 in a series of increasingly expanding positions and most recently was the Vice President for Oracle Defense Technology. Before Oracle, he ran the sales, operations and marketing of Borland Software into the Defense, Intelligence and Federal Civilian Government Agencies. Mr. Davis was also with Macromedia (since acquired by Adobe) where he ran Field Sales Operations for all Public Sector Sales.

Mr. Davis received his B.S. from Boston College.
