

Ira Entis
Managing Director
Accenture Federal Services

BIOGRAPHY

Ira serves as Strategic Solutions and Emerging Technologies Lead, which includes developing and driving the Federal Horizontals program, along with emerging capability areas, and the alliances program. He also serves on the Federal Leadership Team.

Ira joined AFS as part of the 2015 acquisition of Agilex of which he was a co-founder. As Agilex' Chief Growth Officer, Ira was responsible for strategic planning, market development and pipeline management, as he worked with other senior leaders to drive sustainable, profitable and consistent high-growth across the company. The Washington Business Journal recognized Agilex as one of the region's fastest growing companies for five consecutive years. During his Agilex tenure, Ira also served as President of the Government Services and Intel sectors; President of Advanced Technologies; and Chief Marketing Officer.

Previously, Ira was VP, Global Marketing, at BearingPoint, and held various leadership positions at Oracle, where he began his career. Ira received his bachelor's degree from The Wharton School - University of Pennsylvania, and holds a Master of Business Administration from the University of Maryland's Robert H. Smith School of Business.
