

Paul Roeck, Senior Director of BPM Adoption Services

Paul Roeck is a 15 year industry veteran who brings deep experience in how organizations should adopt Pega at the enterprise level. As part of the Pega Consulting leadership team, his focus is on helping organizations develop Centers of Excellence which is a key step in enterprise Pega adoption. Paul holds a BA in Management and Administration from Barat College of DePaul University and a Master's of Science Project Management from George Washington University.