

Victor Diaz Zapanta is a service designer and user experience researcher at 18F, where he led design and research for the relaunched FOIA.gov. He also worked on the USCIS online application for naturalization and GSA's Cloud.gov service. Prior to joining 18F, Victor helped build the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau as one of the first members of their technology team.