

Kyle Davies is an experienced leader and passionate architect who can assess, plan and design across the complete technology stack. He has a broad range of knowledge and expertise across digital workspace, datacenter modernization and cloud. Kyle's main focus is primarily strategy creation, large-scale solutions and complex design. He is active on social media, various tech user groups and hosts his own blog. Kyle also holds a number of vendor invitation only accreditations. Kyle has over 12 years' experience in the technology sector.

Kyle and his team are accountable for the business outcome and strategic opportunities that span multiple technology domains. Technology is an enabler for business change and relevance.