

Ashley Mahan

Biography

Ashley Mahan is the Acting Director of the Federal Risk and Authorization Management Program (FedRAMP) and Secure Cloud Portfolio within the General Services Administration (GSA). Ashley leads an incredible team of security practitioners, technologists, and project managers in support of FedRAMP and the Secure Cloud Portfolio's missions. She serves as a trusted liaison among 200+ industry cloud service providers, 160+ Federal Agencies and other stakeholder groups advocating for and facilitating the adoption of secure cloud technologies across the federal Government.

Ashley holds an M.S. in Information Technology, B.S. in Business and has a variety of project management and technology industry certifications to include PMP, ITIL, and Security+.

Follow Ashley on Twitter: @fedramp and @ashleybmahan

Connect with Ashley on LinkedIn: <https://www.linkedin.com/in/ashleymahan>