

Mallory Barg Bulman, Director of Research and Evaluation, Partnership for Public Service - Mallory Barg Bulman serves as the Director of Research and Evaluation. In her role, she leads the Partnership's thought leadership agenda, which includes overseeing the Best Places to Work in the Federal Government rankings. Mallory is also responsible for leading the Partnership's evaluations of key programs.

Mallory has more than fifteen years of experience overseeing the conceptualization, design, analysis and production of quality research products designed to improve government operations. Mallory has delivered presentations before Congressional staffs, agency officials, academic leaders, and private sector officials on topics such as interagency collaboration, human capital management, organizational transformation, and performance management. Prior to joining the Partnership, Mallory was a Senior Analyst in the Strategic Issues team of the U.S. Government Accountability Office (GAO), Congress' analytic and investigative arm.