

Director – Michele F. Singer

Michele F. Singer, a member of the Senior Executive Service, is the Director for the Department of the Interior's Interior Business Center. She has been with IBC since June 2015 and with Interior since 2000.

Ms. Singer leads the delivery of shared services to support Interior offices and bureaus, as well as over 150 other federal agencies. She leads a workforce of 1,000+ personnel, including three major lines of business: acquisition, financial management and human resources.

Prior to IBC, Ms. Singer served as Principal Deputy Special Trustee at the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians – the agency responsible for oversight and management of Indian trust assets and approximately $4.9 billion in trust funds held in trust by the United States for American Indians, Indian tribes, and Alaska Natives. She has also served as Director of the Office of Regulatory Affairs and Collaborative Action in the Office of the Assistant Secretary–Indian Affairs. In that position, she was responsible for the review and revision of all federal regulations governing Indian Affairs at the Department of the Interior.

After receiving a law degree from Georgetown University, Ms. Singer worked as a litigator in Washington, D.C., and for the Attorney General of the Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe before coming to the Department of the Interior. She is a member of the California; Washington, D.C.; and Cheyenne River Sioux Tribal Court Bars. Ms. Singer also obtained a master's degree in business administration from the University of New Mexico.
