

Robert Shelton, PMP, CFE, CICA, is a CohnReznick Senior Manager with 20+ years of consulting experience providing project, financial, and quality management. Rob's experience includes quality control and assurance review, performance monitoring, compliance and monitoring of federal and state funds, Inspector General reporting, contractor assessments, grants management, and more. Additionally, he has played an integral role in providing: QA/QC and performance monitoring services for a State Office of Community Development, Disaster Recovery Unit (OCD-DRU) Restore Homeowner Assistance Program funded by the Department of Housing and Urban Development's (HUD) Community Development Block Grant Disaster Recovery Program (CDBG-DR); disaster recovery compliance and monitoring support for many states; and disaster recovery assistance through grant distribution and oversight after Hurricanes Katrina, Rita, and Ike.