

Dr. Sahlin leads GDIT's strategic planning, client engagement, and capability development for enterprise cyber solutions and zero trust architectures supporting defense agencies. He manages a team of cybersecurity and systems architects who apply state of the art cyber capabilities to achieve cybersecurity readiness and resilience.