

Scott McHenry, Associate Director, Benefits & Services Team, IRS

Scott McHenry has been the Associate Director of the Internal Revenue Service Benefits and Services Team since September 2019. Prior to that, Scott was the Branch Chief of the Austin Benefits and Services Team since July 2017. Scott joined the IRS in 2010. Prior to the IRS, Scott had 18 years of supervisory and plant management experience in the private sector with manufacturing companies in multiple locations. Scott graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the United States Military Academy at West Point and was an Air Defense Artillery Officer in the 82nd Airborne Division. He was awarded a Meritorious Service Medal for his service in Operation Desert Shield/Desert Storm. He also earned a MBA from the University of Indianapolis.