Sonny Sachdeva is the Practice Lead for Enterprise Networking at Red River. Sonny has over 20 years of experience in Networking across various verticals. He also holds certifications such as CCIE in Routing and Switching and Datacenter along with AWS Networking Specialty. He began his career in networking operations and moved up to senior networking engineer and then a Solutions Architect where he helped design networks for hospitals, airlines, hedge funds and federal agencies. He currently lives in Fort Lauderdale with his family and enjoys technology and helping people