

Roy Borden is the Vice President of Public Sector Alliances for CA Technologies. Roy has held various leadership positions since joining CA Technologies in 1999. Currently Roy is responsible for developing, executing and managing the sales strategy around partner sales within CA's Public Sector division. Roy has a diverse background in leadership, sales management, consulting, program management and partner ecosystem management and has worked in the software sector for over 15 years. Prior to joining CA, Roy was a Management Consultant with Ernst & Young's Center for Technology Enablement (CTE) practice where he provided consulting services to Fortune 100 companies around IT and business alignment. Roy's area of expertise focused on enterprise management and messaging systems. Roy holds a B.S. degree from Auburn University.