

Bob Sullivan is a Principal in PwC's Public Sector Practice. He is responsible for providing healthcare advisory services to the Firm's clients on a National Level and coordination of the Federal Healthcare and Benefit client delivery teams in PwC's Public Sector practice. As such, he is directly responsible for leading all of the Firms' work with the Department of Veterans Affairs, the Department of Health and Human Services, the Military Health System, the Defense Health Agency and the Social Security Administration. His health industry clients have included, Bon Secours Health System, Trinity Health System, MedStar Health, Memorial Sloane Kettering, Duke University Health System, Sisters of Mercy Health System, BJC Health, Kaiser Permanente, BCBS of Florida, and BCBS Minnesota.

Prior to joining PwC, Bob was the President of Consulting at MAXIMUS, overseeing a consulting segment providing Medicaid-based consulting services. He was also the Senior Vice President of the Health Services Segment at BearingPoint overseeing all Federal and Commercial consulting services. He has over 25 years of experience in providing advisory support to clients. Before beginning his consulting career Bob served as a Surface Warfare Officer in the United States Navy.