

Tammy Surratt; Iron Bow Business Development Director - Army

A retired Army Signal Warrant Officer Five (CW5), Tammy brings over 30 years of experience in developing both strategy and technology for go-to-market and branded solutions across the Department of Defense (DoD), to include posturing IT Solutions to deliver successful client outcomes. She is responsible for technology sales and growth to the team, Army business development activities, and team building.