

Tony Encinias, Senior Strategist and Innovation Officer, State and Local Government, Dell Technologies

Tony is a well-respected and sought after thought leader for large scale technology operations, digital transformation and cybersecurity. Before joining Dell Technologies, Tony was the Vice President of Technology for ViON Corporation. Before his role with ViON, Tony was the Chief Technology Officer for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and later appointed by Governor Corbett to serve as the Deputy Secretary for Information Technology and Chief Information Officer for the Commonwealth. Tony is a retired United States Naval Officer, with over 25 years' experience in Information Technology management with the Department of Defense (DoD), state government and private sector.

Twitter: @trencinias