

Will Coffey Bio

An experienced technology leader, Will has over 20 years experience delivering technology and cyber solutions to both commercial and US Federal clients, helping them solve their most complex business and security challenges. He is Currently a Senior Manager with Accenture Federal Services advising and delivering on the strategic adoption of digital platforms capabilities by the federal government.

As a technology executive, Will has supported the implementation of cyber assurance, security, and compliance capabilities across the government. Will is one of 60 ServiceNow Certified Master Architects worldwide, and his primary focus areas are the Security Operations and Governance, Risk, and Compliance platform capabilities.